I Am Alive

Devil You Know

Running
I've been running in circles for
All these years
I never want to looking inside myself and face my fears

Waiting
Why am I waiting way under me
I realize, I only hope that I regain my sight

No more hiding
It's been far too long
Still betraying
What's right from wrong

I've been searching for a cross to be my name
I've been searching for a chance to walk away
I walk away

Lying
I've been lying to myself for all these years
Now I know the pet who I am is truly clear

Dying
I've been dying every day since I lost home
I'm all alone and now I'll be left to perish in the cold

Walking in silence
It's the slowest death
I'll keep searching to my final breath
I've been searching for a cross to be my name
I've been searching for a chance to walk away
I walk away

I am, I am alive [x4]
