

Master of None

Devil You Know

I wear a crown of thorns and the blood flows easily
I can only see what's broken, this is the way of life for me

I never laughed so easily, I never cried so hard
I've never stood so high above, I've never fallen so far

What can I do?
My God, what have I done?
I crave the darkness
What have I become?

I am the master of none, I am the devil you know
What have I become?

I have destroyed all creation, still hanging from the noose
My screams echo all around me, I pray to be cut loose

I never laughed so easily, I never cried so hard
I've never stood so high above, I've never fallen so far

What can I do?
My God, what have I done?
I crave the darkness
What have I become?

I'm the master of none
No chance to seek forgiveness
I will reap what I sow
I'm the devil you know

Is this the fate I accept?
Living a life of regret
No chance to see the sun
My God, what have I done?

I am the master of none, I am the devil you know

I'm the master of none, what have I become?
No chance to seek forgiveness
I will reap what I sow, what have I become?
I'm the devil you know

No chance to seek forgiveness
No chance for retribution
No chance to atone for our sins

I'm the devil you know
I'm the devil you know
I will reap what I sow
I'm the devil you know

I will reap what I sow
I'm the devil you know
