

Iona

DevilDriver

Sick and twisted,
She stands with a lion's roar, leaves you breathless!
Down and out, but never counted, so count her in!
Doomed and haunted, a vicious midnight stare,
The weight so heavy!
Cloaked in black, with a vicious midnight stare,
She leaves you breathless!

Everyone knows death walks on these roads,
Everyone knows there's sights unseen.
Everyone knows death walks on these roads,
Everyone knows there's sights unseen.

She carries a black rose,
She carries a black rose!
Effigy from the story closed,
She carries a black rose!

Sweet Iona, she's so bloodthirsty,
All men better beware.
Not her gaze, her fucking violent stare,
She leaves you breathless!

Everyone knows death walks on these roads,
Everyone knows there's sights unseen.
Everyone knows death walks on these roads,
Everyone knows!

She carries a black rose,
She carries a black rose!
Effigy from the story closed,
She carries a black rose!

Have you ever been in love?
Love is a killer!
Have you ever been in love?

Have you ever been in love?
Love is a killer!
Have you ever been in love?
Love is a killer!

Have you ever been in love?
Love is a killer!
Everyone knows, everyone knows love is a killer!

She carries a black rose,
She carries a black rose!
Effigy from the story closed,
She carries a black rose!
