

Mantra

DevilDriver

The spells move bells
They ask questions
It all circles back
This is a witch's mantra
The bells, the cards
The runes, the bones
The tales to be told
This is a witch's mantra

When you feel the walls are caving in
You're living on borrowed time
Borrowed time
When you see the doors closing all around
You're living on borrowed time
Borrowed time

The words are spoke
The laughter is heard
The die is cast
This is a witch's mantra
The curses, the runes
The cards, the cold
The tales to be told
This is a witch's mantra

When you feel the walls are caving in
You're living on borrowed time
Borrowed time
When you see the doors closing all around
You're living on borrowed time
Borrowed time

What we do in the dark comes circling back
Dealing with demons
What we do in the dark comes circling back
Dealing with demons

Can you hear the laughter?
The cracks in the walls?
Can you hear the laughter?
Can you hear it through the cracks in the walls?

The curses, the clouds
The tales to be told
This is a witch's mantra
The bells, the cards
The runes, the bones
It all circles back
This is a witch's mantra
