

The Appetite

DevilDriver

Eyes on fire on you
Your presence is violation
Leave now or it's annihilation
It's best for both parties
If we just part
Eyes on fire on you
Take it with a grain of salt
Take it to the limit
Take the world by storm
Keep your head in
Take the gloves off
Take your life in your hands
Eyes on fire on you
Live for the day...
No one promised tomorrow anyway...
Gotta keep the dogs at bay
Keep the dogs at bay

Do you have the appetite?
The expectations to suffice?
Your cups of sorrow filled with spite
I'm begging, I'm begging, I'm begging you!

Don't dwell, it's my burden to bare
Fall time season it's in the air
It's best for both parties
If we just part

Do you...
Do you have...
Do you have the appetite..?
Do you have my eyes on fire on you

Don't with your life away
If you think I give a fuck
Better think again, good luck!
Disconnected, diconnect you
Eyes on fire on you
If you think I give a fuck
You better think again, good luck!
Disconnected, disconnect you
