

Vengeance is Clear

DevilDriver

I feel so trapped in my own head
I replay everything that you've said
I can't escape this desperate feeling
Overwhelmed by my consuming dread
I'm looking in the mirror, eyes full of doubt and fear
No time to settle scores, so no more
Thy will is done, no explanation
No rhyme or reason, no more

Do or die, what's done is done
Do or die, vengeance is clear!

A fucking nod to the guilty, undone by their woes
Don't torture yourself by the seeds they sew
It's an end to the story, a chapter to be closed
I'm locked up in a vault, I'm loyal to a fault
All this life I've waited through the rain
Never to feel this weight again
I swore to the thunder, I summoned the rain
I prayed down in the dirt, never to fall again
Under the skin we're all just blood and bones
I've hit the walls so many times, can't remember them all

Do or die, what's done is done
Do or die, vengeance is clear!

All this life I've swore to the thunder
All this life I prayed to the rain
All this life I've crawled down in the fucking dirt
All this life I swore to the thunder
All this life I summon the rain
All this life I prayed down in the fucking dirt
Never to fall again

Do or die, what's done is done
Do or die, vengeance is clear!
Do or die, what's done is done
Do or die, vengeance is clear!
So clear!
