

Witches

DevilDriver

Pony up there's a price to pay
For the knowledge of tomorrow and your questions today
Pony up there's a price to pay
When You throw the bones thrice and they come your way
You've come seeking what doesn't exist
As you fall to the bottom of your own abyss
You've come seeking what doesn't exist
As you look to the signs all this time dismissed

So bite your tongue
Until it bleeds from all that's wrong
Cut the cord, as we run
Do what you will, thy will is done!

Witches, conjure
All this night I summon with sigils
Witches, with power
As they offer eternal vigil
Witches!

End of story cause this chapter is closed
There could be another outcome that just isn't disclosed
End of story as it all draws near
The water will be muddy and it never will be clear
You've come seeking what doesn't exist
As you fall to the bottom of your own abyss
You've come seeking what doesn't exist
As you look to the signs all this time dismissed

So... bite your tongue
Until it bleeds from all that's wrong
Cut the cord, as we run
Do what you will, thy will is done!

Witches, conjure
All this night I summon with sigils
Witches with power
As they offer eternal vigil
Witches, conjure
All this night I summon with sigils
Witches... power!

This blood runs cold, beneath my skin
These sorrow days, has reached its end!

Pony up!
Pony up!
Price to pay!

Witches, conjure
All this night I summon with sigils
Witches, with power
As they offer eternal vigil
Witches, conjure
All this night I summon with sigils
Witches... with power!
