

All Fall Down

Devilskin

Fear will make you follow
Today until tomorrow
Try too hard to swallow
Your heart and soul are hollow

Life's a deadly game
Again, again, again, again
And now you play the sacrifice
Another life for Jesus Christ
We all fall down

With a hail for help
We need to break the spell
Release us from ourselves
And give us truth to tell

Life's a deadly game
Again, again, again, again
And now you play the sacrifice
Another life for Jesus Christ
We all fall down

Life's a deadly game
Again, again, again, again
And now you play the sacrifice
Another life for Jesus Christ
We all fall down

Time is quickly writing
And we're all about to drown
To amend we make a stand here
And we all fall down
Time is quickly writing
And we're all about to drown
To amend we make a stand there
Then we all fall down
