

Bury Me

Devilskin

Deep inside my feelings
The fire no longer burns
Smoke has long since fade
Dust and bones return

Bury Me with all your lies

Alone and barely breathing
My heart in no longer yearns
Memories are faded
I give in to the worms

Bury Me will all your lies
A grave that's deep and dark inside

This casket is so small
And so heavy in my breast
Fingernails clawed once at the inside
Now pull me under
It's you who can't be saved

Bury Me with all your lies
A grave that's deep and dark inside
