

House 13

Devilskin

Break the line
There's something beyond the sun
Nonchalant
You think you're the chosen one
The perfect sin, forgiven in
This darkness that you desire, it's not all there is

In the end I know, oh
The truth and love will finally show
Forgotten like a world away
It's too late to pray

A wheel within a wheel
It's written in the sky
A wheel within a wheel
The centre of time

A wheel within a wheel
It's written in the sky
A wheel within a wheel
The centre of time

Walk with us
The perfect disguise you see
Hide the lies
How wretched a heart can be
The perfect sin, forgiven in
This darkness that you desire, it's not all there is

In the end I know, oh
The truth and love will finally show
Forgotten like a world away
It's too late to pray

A wheel within a wheel
It's written in the sky
A wheel within a wheel
The centre of time

A wheel within a wheel
It's written in the sky
A wheel within a wheel
The centre of time

The sting from the arrow
You wait and you watch
You cry to the heavens for the ones that you lost
The snakes in your hands hold
The power to dream
The weight of the burden you bear makes you scream

For all your dreams and broken hearts
Worlds away and worlds apart
Forget your dreams and broken hearts
Worlds away, we're worlds apart

A wheel within a wheel

It's written in the sky
A wheel within a wheel

A wheel within a wheel
A wheel within a wheel

A wheel within a wheel
A wheel within a wheel
