

Limbs

Devilskin

I am flying
This substance is taking over
Feeling headstrong
I am far from sober

You walk away
You break the path that is set out
In front of me
Don't walk away

Cold, shake these Limbs sober, sober
Watch the blood wash over, over
Take me somewhere else than here
Cold, shake these Limbs sober, sober

Heels begin to ache
Take me now
Before the break

Saliva rises, bile is close
Clench your fists and watch the flow
Short of breath, your weak head spins
Close your eyes, let it go
Sweat drips down your crooked bones
Retching, heaving, all alone
(Just drink sauvignon blanc)

Cold, shake these Limbs sober, sober
Watch the blood wash over, over
Take me somewhere else than here
Cold, shake these Limbs sober, sober
Cold, shake these Limbs sober, sober

My mind blank
Broken Limbs
Feed off the vibe, I'm falling
My mind blank
Broken Limbs
My mind blank
Broken Limbs
Feed off the vibe, I'm falling
My mind blank

I am flying
This substance is taking over
Feeling headstrong
I am far from sober
I am far from sober

Cold, shake these Limbs sober, sober
Watch the blood wash over, over
Take me somewhere else than here
Cold, shake these Limbs sober, sober
Cold, shake these Limbs sober, sober
