

Never See The Light

Devilskin

Friend of mine, 25 old
You left the world, confused and alone
Your heart's still here, you left with us
You wanted it back
So the fight would arise

My talented one, fingers of gold
Sympathies arise, cry no more
My talented one, fingers of gold
Sympathies arise, cry no more

Gone from us while we live, (we see you)
For you'll never see the light
We had to give (this won't fade)
The world won't be the same
Without you here (we feel you)
For you'll never see the light
We had prepared
