

Pray

Devilskin

Protect me, draw the line
Holding all my sins
A waste of you and I
Holding on again

Although I Pray so softly
No one really cares
Although I Pray so softly
No one really cares

Reject me, one more time
Draw the blood again
An ocean of all our tears
I could never swim

I have this weight upon my shoulders
(Too hard to care)
A burden I could never bear
(Could never bear)

Although I Pray so softly
No one really cares
Although I Pray so softly
No one really cares

No one really cares

You think you read the story
All the while on your face
Heaven's not just there for heroes
Waiting for my glory
With the sun upon my face
Heaven's not there just for us
(Devil you know)

Although I Pray so softly
No one really cares
Although (Though I)
Pray (Pray)
So softly
No one really cares

Really cares
Really cares
