

Same Life

Devilskin

Caught by the whip
Oh, that is my destiny
Now you watch me bleed
Another day in this burning city
And I've got what you need

Caught in a jar, suspended in time
You'll leave your days as a forfeit mind

Life in a cage
Is turning me blind
I pace in a rage and I wait to die
Life in a cage
Is turning me blind
I pace in a rage and I wait to die
With this
Same life, same life

I close my door
And I lock it twice
I count my money there
I pay the price with a hollow life
And I lie awake and stare

Caught in a jar, suspended in time
You'll leave your life as a forfeit mind

Life in a cage
Is turning me blind
I pace in a rage and I wait to die
Life in a cage
Is turning me blind
I pace in a rage and I wait to die
Life in a cage
Oh, it's turning me blind
I pace in a rage and I wait to die
Same life, same life

Same life
Same life
Same life
