Sweet Release

Devilskin

Picking up the pieces that you broke
The saddest morning when I woke
See, it's difficult to know the truth
The darkened path of being you
Alone, alone

The rain was coming down that day
The blackest sky to which I prayed
See, it's difficult to think you're gone
Your life became the saddest song
Alone, alone

Life's emotions, sweet release
Life's emotions, sweet release

We watch you walking out that door
Rewind a thousand times or more
See, it's difficult to see you there
Your broken heart, your hollow stare
Alone, alone

I heard the dogs that barked that night
The river shined in the moonlight
See, it's difficult to not feel blame
The world will never be the same
Oh no, I'm alone

Life's emotions, sweet release
Life's emotions, sweet release
Let the sun wash over me
Life's emotions, sweet release

Life's emotions, sweet release
Life's emotions, sweet release
Let the river flow through me
Life's emotions, sweet release
