

Dreaming before my first breath
Dreaming to know you and to breathe
The fresh smell of life and the warmth of the light
The feel of your skin next to mine
Listening before my first breath
Listening to the world each day
The power in the word you say
The passion in the songs you play
Oh oh
And now it's my time

Father, can you hear me?
Mother, can you hear me?
I can feel the love when you are near me
Hit or miss it's our history
Wrap me up in love and be safe with me

Growing nurtured sacred womb
Knowing that I'll be with you soon
A dream away, but not so far
And we'll discover who we are
Oh oh

Father, can you hear me?
Mother, can you hear me?
I can feel the love when you are near me
Hit or miss it's our history
Wrap me up in love and be safe with me
Wrap me up in love and be safe with me
Wrap me up

Wrap me up in love and be safe with me
Wrap me up in love and be safe with me
Wrap me up

Father, can you hear me?
Mother, can you hear me?
Father, can you hear me?
