

Darkness Feller

Devilyn

Where flows, somewhere in the caves
That human's thought can't measure
STHYX, the holy river
That dies in the dark sea
Eternal chaos's time's streams
Relentlessly tear darkness fetter

I keep on driftingunaware of existence
Dead inside and I look, as time passes
Immortality shakes hands with me
From the grey distance I can see, the end
Sings of worlds existence
Life-stinking human rouges

And even if I stalk
Through the shadows of the Dead's Valley
I won't be afraid of an uncalled whispers
As my dead soul signs hymn of immortality
I'll fly into storm I'll touch the absolute of depths
Burning wind will carry me towards fulfilments
