

Range Rover

Devin Dawson

All my friends
Been asking where Amanda's been
Said she seemed like such a perfect ten
They ask me when
I was gonna take her home to Cleveland
Said, "She was just your type
Dark hair and with the green-brown eyes
Real smart and she cleaned up nice"
They ask me why
I said if you really need a reason, well

I'm looking for a girl that's fine if I drive a pickup
And she does not mind riding in it
With the windows down cranking Keith Whitley loud next to me
I'm looking for a girl who sees past blown speakers
And a broke AC and a bench seat
With a quarter-million miles on the motor
But she was looking for that Range Rover
She just wants that, just wants that Range Rover
(Yeah)

Yeah, well I should have known
When she was searching for designer homes
Custom kitchen with the Viking stove
Saving pictures on a big iPhone, you know the one
When she hated beer
She didn't catch a college game all year
She was way too into my career
She tried to pick the single and it all came clear

That I was looking for a girl that's fine if I drive a pickup
And she does not mind riding in it
With the windows down cranking Keith Whitley loud next to me
I'm looking for a girl who sees past blown speakers
And a broke AC and a bench seat
With a quarter-million miles on the motor
But she was looking for that Range Rover
She just wants that, just wants that Range Rover

Yeah, she was looking for that Range Rover
I was in a pickup
And I tried to take road tripping
She just wasn't with it
If this music was a pain
She'd have left me in a minute
Left me in a minute, oh

I'm looking for a girl that's fine if I drive a pickup
And she does not mind riding in it
With the windows down cranking Lee Greenwood loud next to me
I'm looking for a girl who sees past blown speakers
And a broke AC and a bench seat
With a quarter-million miles on the motor
But she was looking for that Range Rover
She just wants that, just wants that Range Rover
She want that Range Rover
