Meet a girl, hit it off
Let it burn as she gone in a month
Another girl, another date
But it feels like a table for one
I was done with the same old distractions
I'd given up on falling in love
Then it happened when I met her
Epidemic out of nowhere

I started losing sleep, couldn't catch a wink
High fever in the sheets, knees gettin' weak
My heart was skippin' beats, she was running deep
Like a toxin that's all in my system

I got symptoms
So many, yeah
She's so different
Coming down with a case of her love

I don't need a prescription
You don't gotta talk to the doctor
Cause a shot in the arm or a shock to the heart
Couldn't stop her
She's dangerous, yeah, she's contagious
I'm coming down with a case of her love
Don't need saving D.N.R.
I've been craving more and more

Since I started losing sleep, couldn't catch a wink
High fever in the sheets, knees gettin' weak
My heart was skippin' beats, she was running deep
Like a toxin that's all in my system
