

P.L.A.N.S.A.

Devin the Dude

I try to do right, now that I'm grown
Hardly never stayed home, I used to wander and roam
Only thing was on my mind was weed, women and wine
Be with only one woman for a limited time
Then it's on to the next, all about sex
Fuck respect, tryna put my dick in a bitch neck
Straight reckless, spreadin' myself thin
Really wasn't concerned about my health then
Now it's quite different, my life's shiftin'
I promised that I'd have a more honest way of livin'
I don't know if it's a guilty conscience or what, but
You still think I'm fuckin' up
Sleepin' while you're peepin' through my wallet in my pants pocket
Believin' that I'm cheatin', every day mad, fuck it
Your reasons not to trust me simply don't hold weight
Whatever happened to us bein' soulmates?

If you wanna know what's goin' on
I ain't breakin' up a happy home
But if we gonna get along
Please leave a nigga's shit alone
Why you always think I'm doin' wrong?
You're the only girl I'm finna bone
Why you always goin' through my phone?
Please leave a nigga's shit alone (Please leave a nigga's shit alone)

You got me wonderin', is it real or fake?
Goin' deep-cover, tryna build a case
Crackin' codes to my passwords, checkin' my location?
Feels like I'm on probation
Callin' numbers back that I missed with no name
But always comin' up with nothin', yup, you're so vain
Every text message that you send me, you mad
And always bringin' up the ex niggas you had?
Didn't wanna do it, but I let my heart unfold
But lo and behold, you're goin' through my car console
I guess you're lookin' for rubbers
Names or numbers, somethin' or 'nother
Said you talked to your brother; you heard he said what?
Saw me with a bitch at the Turkey Leg Hut?
Thinkin' I'm doin' wrong every time that I'm gone
And every time I leave, you always hide my cologne

If you wanna know what's goin' on
I ain't breakin' up a happy home
But if we gonna get along
Please leave a nigga's shit alone
Why you always think I'm doin' wrong?
You're the only girl I'm finna bone
Why you always goin' through my phone?
Please leave a nigga's shit alone

(Oh, baby, oh, baby)
(Please leave my shit alone)
(Leave my shit alone, girl)
(Leave my shit alone, leave my shit alone)

If you wanna know what's goin' on
I ain't breakin' up a happy home (I ain't breakin' up a happy home)
But if we gonna get along
Please leave a nigga's shit alone (Leave my shit alone, girl)
Why you always think I'm doin' wrong?
You're the only girl I'm finna bone (Only girl, baby)
Why you always goin' through my phone?
Please leave a nigga's shit alone (Leave a nigga's shit alone)
