

Farther On

Devin Townsend Project

She called you out of your waiting area in your heart
She tried, you're waiting here.
You, where did you go?
Oh, you're running away, pay the door.
But you're free!
And if you let me go on home
We promise to return
Just listen: it leads you farther on! On!
I want to know if you're waiting, is it because you're blind? O h!
I haven't got the time, no!
Oh, you're running away, pay the door.
'Cause you know, and if you let me go on home
We promise to return
Just listen: it leads you farther on!
Oh, and if you let me go on home
We promise to return
Just listen: it leads you farther on! On! On!
