

Support The Cause

Devin Townsend Project

All that has been lost is buried in the cause...

Do you know that the winds of change are blowin'?
And can you see that the time of hell has come?

All that has been lost is buried in the past...
Now our future lies; together we rise! Go! Go! Slow!

Hey, can you say that you never needed any time?
See, things change, and they'll keep on changing, so keep changing.

All that has been lost dissolves into the cause...
Now our future lies; absolution? Absolutely.

Sing it!

Hard time, realized. Hard minds, had to rewind.
All the ways you were don't matter anymore
As we head down to the shore.

I won't leave us till I'm sure that you're OK.
You will have to forgive yourself 'cause you're OK.
You're OK!

Hard time, realize. Hard minds, had to rewind.
All the ways you were don't matter anymore
As we head down to the shore.
As we head down to the shore.
