Soften the wait now
Soften the mind
Dreams are revealing

Downtown (take a little)
Downtown (take a little)
Downtown (take a little)
Alright

Downtown (stick a little)
Downtown (stick a little)
Downtown (stick a little)
Alright

It's alright
It's alright

I'm a living detour
The ugly 'coming down'
Sky will be no cover
Dead voices in your heart

Downtown (take a little)
Downtown (take a little)
Downtown (take a little)
Alright

Downtown (stick a little)
Downtown (stick a little)
Downtown (stick a little)
Alright

Fight...

Look to the sky
Arms raised

Time, it's on, wake up now
Time, let's all wake up now
Time... we're only in it

Shadows we are, we are, we are
Shadows we are, we are, we are
Shadows we are, we are, we are
Shadows we are, we are, the only word

And all we do is in the rain
To the waiting bells? I dare not say
And oh, we could wait to play with our loads
Wings to the mystery, cause we do not know

Downtown...

So it begins...
Violence!
Violence!
