

Dinosaurs

Devin Townsend

Elephant
And you know you're the only
Element
And you're told that it's only
Relevant
If you're only the lonely fool

Relevant
While you know you're corroding
The intelligence
Says it's only the road but
You're arrogant
After all that you've been through
You're so damn cheeky

Oh my daddy, bend this moment
I'll be damned if you're gonna take it alone

I'll be damned

Elephant!
Yeah you're old and you know it
Irrelevant!
And you're told that you wrote it
To hell with this!
'Cause we know that you're only fuel
And this is so damn easy

Slow dog comin' to steal your bone and
You're on and on as you've always done
But oh my god you gotta give it some more, well
We're all evolved in dinosaurs

We all want it, hey, don't talk about it
We all want it, hey, we are, we are
We all want it, hey, don't talk about it
We all want it, hey, we are, we are

We're all dinosaurs
We're all dinosaurs

Ladies and gentlemen
Come to I
From the center of time
Humans rejoicing
Please, feel for me

Hey!
Yes!
We praise Satan!
He lives inside of our hearts!
We praise Satan!
He lives inside of our hearts!
We're all dinosaurs!
We're all dinosaurs!

We praise Satan!

He lives inside of our hearts!
We praise Satan!
He lives inside of our hearts!
