

Gump

Devin Townsend

Lay waste to a feeling
Lifetimes old
Lay awake at night
Afraid of everything that you know

Brave face to a new world
I know you
Lay awake at night
Afraid of everybody you know
So goodbye to everything that you know

Sing!

I am now with the mountain
I am now home

Be afraid of the right God?
Shame on you!
Lay awake at night
Ashamed of everything that you do

Stay in bed till you know when you're gonna
Put this into motion
Or lay in wait for more
The mother of the venomous core
Just say goodbye to all the things that you fear

Sing it!

I am now with the mountain
I am now home
I am now only wandering
I am one with the world's heart

Golden you, go and fly

When we last met who was I?
I'm sorry we no longer see eye to eye
The energy to keep you in while keeping myself out
I'm sorry how you'll take this
But I just don't have the patience anymore

Turn away, turn away!
Go through the fire!

I am now with the mountain
I am now home
I am now only wandering
I am one with the world's heart

For this, I will keep wandering!
