

Heavy Burden

Devin Townsend

Laughing
Laughing
Laughing
Laughing
Happy ever after
Happy ever after
Happy ever after
Happy ever after

Take your time and go
Take your time

Heavy: The burden
Heavy: The water
Heavy: The ocean
Heavy: The fire
Heavy, but brother...
There ain't no other way

We emerged as a mineral, lost on a hill
It's a drill, it's a natural thrill
As the North Star kept shining
All over the world

Take your time and go
Take your time

Take the day
With every single breath, you know the way

It's ok
(Heavy, heavy, heavy)
It's ok
(It's so heavy now, it's so heavy now, it's so heavy now)

The one and the two
I see you, I need you
I feel you, I'm on my own now
But your love keeps shining the way

(Tears me all to pieces, tears me all to pieces)
(Tears me all to pieces, tears me all to pieces)

Don't judge me, don't judge...
Double down

Always something sacred
Always something sacred
Always something sacred
Gone with all of our days

(Lighthouse, lighthouse, lighthouse...)
