

Knuckledragger

Devin Townsend

Gimme me another, another beer man
I want another, another dream man...
Don't wanna think about nothing
I want infinite ways to get away from myself

Love, I want
I want love
I want
I want to be kind, I want
I want you, I want...
Gimme me it all

Gimme me another, another beer man
I want another, another dream man...
Don't wanna think about nothing
I want infinite ways to get away from myself

Time, my God... there's no time
I want to slow down and take it easier...

But I can't play dumb, if you're not dumb
It's making me numb the way we're supposed to be

So I'm gonna stand up!
Stand tall!
In the depths of universal sound
There's no question now:
The idiots fucking rule

Gimme me another, another beer man
I want another, another dream man...
Don't wanna think about nothing
I want infinite ways to get away from myself

Gimme me another, another beer man
I want another, another dream man...
Don't wanna think of the others
I want infinite ways to get away from myself

So I'm gonna stand up!
Stand tall!
In the depths of universal sound
There's no question now:
The idiots fucking rule

(Balls... I've got balls... I've got big balls... I've got balls)

But I can't play dumb
If you're not dumb
It's making me numb the way we're supposed to be

So let it out!
Let it out!
Let it out!
Let it out!

Show us the way!

Gimme me another, another beer man
I want another, another dream man
Don't wanna think about nothing
I want infinite ways to get away from myself

Gimme me another, another beer man
I want another, another dream man
Don't wanna think of the others
Don't wanna think about nothing...

I want infinite ways to get away from myself
