

Lightworker

Devin Townsend

May your heart be filled with love
May your mind be strong enough

You and me, and this memory

Tell me there's another
Lead me to the mother
We are all of us
Tell me there's another
Lean into it brother
We are all of us

May your heart be filled with peace
May your soul sleep well

You and me and this melody

Tell me there's another
Lead me to the mother
We are all of us
Tell me there's another
Lean into it brother
We are all of us

So say it again! Say it again!

Free your heart!
Free your heart!
Free your heart!

To acknowledge that in fullness
You must understand that there is also the plane of flow
Which is the plane of pure love
...The plane of no boundaries of energy

Tell me there's another
Lead me to the mother
We are all of us
And if we remember, we will be together
We are all of us

And though your life's a dream of God
Show your light don't dream of all your needs no more

You'll bleed no more, you Lightworker
