Limelight

Devlin

Someone show me where the limelight is
It's been a while but I'm back inside this bitch
I don't think that I'll ever be tiny big
But you know me, the peoples MC
[x2]

I'm up front again with three hundred men
I'll fight to defend till I'm dying my death
It's the one called Devs with the fiery blend
I'm amped up let me hit em with the fire again
It's too much, crews duck
Get down when I come around town might better your luck
To get wherever the fuck you feel safe how comes?
I've got this terrible lust
To reinstate myself so it better be love
Cos you'd hate yourself if the enemy one
I'll be spinning MCs when I'm seventy-one
I can't stop won't stop it's Devlin son
Spilotro, in Las Vegas
Clamp who any what any one
A diamond in the ruff like me
Belongs at the front, make way chumps

Someone show me where the limelight is
It's been a while but I'm back inside this bitch
I don't think that I'll ever be tiny big
But you know me, the peoples MC
[x2]

Someone direct me directly right to the light
While I spit flows in a frenzy
Alchemy the boys golden tell me
How I make all these elements shine when I venture inside no length will def y
The vision of a one man gentry
Who am I? Juelz Santana when he wrote 'Who am I'
Mummy I love you, don't cry
My mind ain't been right ever since I arrived
But now I'm back on my grind
My music feels real cos there ain't no fibs, no lies
Ust trying to exist in a pit full of vipers shit
I've been bit it's alright, it's my time to bite
And fight for what I think's mine
It just might be the perfect night

Someone show me where the limelight is
It's been a while but I'm back inside this bitch
I don't think that I'll ever be tiny big
But you know me, the peoples MC
[x2]

It's the people's champ, the MC's MC
I ain't got the most Ps in the bank
But I've got a lot of people that thank this man for the fact that I helped em through when I Came through with a needed batch
Of tunes I dispatched to which a lot of you's got attached

You saw the sincerity
When I sat with a pen and a pad these bars and a readers lamp
You feed me the energy that I need when I wanna be set free from the clamps
There's people ahead of me I'll run up on em readily and merrily and put em in the grime scene cemetery
No need to say thanks
I just do what I do when I do it
I'm too stubborn to fall in rank
