

Can't Stop

Devon Baldwin

Ten years
And I'm still having nightmares
Where you act like you don't know me
And I just want you to hold me
We both tried
Loving someone else a few times
But we always make 'em suffer
We're just waiting for each other

And I know it's not smart
We're doomed from the start
But nothing keeps us apart

And maybe I just can't stop
I can't stop loving you
Can't stop
I can't stop loving you
Can't stop
I can't stop loving you
And maybe I don't want to

And maybe I don't want to

You'd think
I'd be sick of how you treat me
'Cause you always keep me guessing
I guess I haven't learned my lesson
And you say
You'll be ready for me one day
And I wish I could believe you
But this time I'm gonna need proof

And I know it's not smart
We're doomed from the start
But nothing keeps us apart

And maybe I just can't stop
I can't stop loving you
Can't stop
I can't stop loving you
Can't stop
I can't stop loving you
And maybe I don't want to

Can't stop even if I really want to
Do you want to come through? Wouldn't stop you
I won't settle for less if it's not you
Not you

Can't stop even if I really want to
Do you want to come through? Wouldn't stop you
I won't settle for less if it's not you
Not you

And maybe I just can't stop
Can't stop

I can't stop loving you
Can't stop
I can't stop loving you

Can't stop
Can't stop
Can't stop
