

Confession

Devon Baldwin

I think I do this all the time
See, I drink so much cause I can't get high
No matter how hard I try
I just don't seem to be satisfied
Oh, yeah you've been on my mind
How could something so wrong just feels so right
Could you hold me down and swear it's just one time only
Oh, and if you and I, so tell me are you feeling loved?

Something 'bout the way you touch me makes me wonder how
It feels to be with you
I swear, it's just this one time only

Maybe you're only my latest obsession, or
Maybe we do have some kind of connection
Let's find a way to release all this tension
This is my, this is my late night confession

Even if I have to lie
I know you're worth the fight
I'm ready to cross the line
But I'm wondering if it's worth the time?
Could you hold me down and swear it's just one time only
Oh, and if you and I, so tell me are you feeling loved?

Something 'bout the way you touch me makes me wonder how
It feels to be with you
I swear, it's just this one time only

Yeah, we're both breaking the rules
Just can't play it cool
Tried to, but we just can't stop it
Maybe because there's

Something 'bout the way you touch me makes me wonder how
It feels to be with you
I swear, it's just this one time only

Maybe you're only my latest obsession, or
Maybe we do have some kind of connection
Let's find a way to release all this tension
This is my, this is my late night confession

Feels so right oh oh oh
Feels so right
Just this one time

Something 'bout the way you touch me makes me wonder how
It feels to be with you
I swear, it's just this one time only

Maybe you're only my latest obsession, or
Maybe we do have some kind of connection
Let's find a way to release all this tension
This is my, this is my late night confession
