

Don't Pray For Me

Devon Baldwin

Don't pray for me
Don't pray for me

Are you feeling guilty
For the pain you caused me
I keep hearing that you're asking 'bout me
Again again

But I don't need your pity
Won't believe the lies you feed me
Don't pretend you wouldn't hurt me
Again again

Cause you tore me down
So you could be the one who would pick me up
I don't need you now
I don't need you, I don't need you

How could you be so cruel
After what we've been through
Why'd you pour salt in my wounds
Don't pray for me (don't pray for me)

It wasn't enough for you
To cut my soul in two
You had to pour salt in my wounds
Don't pray for me
Don't pray for me

Don't pray for me
Don't pray for me

When you said you loved me
What you meant was sorry
Cause you broke another promise to me
Again again

And you tore me down
So you could be the one who would build me up
I don't need you now
I don't need you, I don't need you

How could you be so cruel
After what we've been through
Why'd you pour salt in my wounds
Don't pray for me (don't pray for me)

It wasn't enough for you
To cut my soul in two
You had to pour salt in my wounds
Don't pray for me
Don't pray for me

Don't pray for me
Don't pray for me

How could you be so cruel

After what we've been through
Why'd you pour salt in my wounds
Don't pray for me

It wasn't enough for you
To cut my soul in two
You had to pour salt in my wounds
Don't pray for me
Don't pray for me

Don't pray for me
Don't pray for me
Don't pray for me
Don't pray for me
