

Fire

Devon Baldwin

I'm in the eye of the storm
Begging the silence to break
I'm tired of being so torn
Between what I fear and I crave

I don't wanna be so afraid of fire
Even when it hurts, I need to feel it burning
I don't wanna be so afraid of fire
'Cause you light me up, 'cause you light me up

I don't wanna be so afraid to fly
Even when I fall at least I know I'm learning
I don't wanna be so afraid of fire
'Cause you light me up, 'cause you light me up

'Cause you light me up, 'cause you light me up
'Cause you light me up, 'cause you light me up
'Cause you light me up, 'cause you light me up
'Cause you light me up, 'cause you light me up

I'm on the edge looking down
Holding the air in my lungs
I know there's no turning back now
So I'll shut my eyes and I'll jump

I don't wanna be so afraid of fire
Even when it hurts, I need to feel it burning
I don't wanna be so afraid of fire
'Cause you light me up, 'cause you light me up

I don't wanna be so afraid to fly
Even when I fall at least I know I'm learning
I don't wanna be so afraid of fire
'Cause you light me up, 'cause you light me up

How do I forget my scars?
My broken bones and broken hearts
So terrified to fall apart
That I can't let down my guard

I don't wanna be so afraid of fire
Even if it hurts, I need to feel it burning
I don't wanna be so afraid of fire
'Cause you light me up

'Cause you light me up, 'cause you light me up
'Cause you light me up, 'cause you light me up
'Cause you light me up, 'cause you light me up
'Cause you light me up, 'cause you light me up
