

Knock You Down

Devon Baldwin

You think I'm the one lets play the game, play the game, play the game
I could hold you down blow you away, you away, you away
Pulling out a gun taking aim, I'm taking aim
I won't let you out I'm here to stay, here to stay, I'm here to stay

I can't take this, you will break me
I can't fake it, so just take me
I can't take it, you will break me
I can't fake it, so just take me

You'll love me now, but I can't help it
If I'm the one who takes you down
You'll love me now, but I can't help it
If I'm the one who knocks you down

Said I was the one maybe I lied, yeah I lied, yeah I lied
Don't leave me alone I'll tell you why, tell you why, tell you why
Gonna shoot you down say goodbye, just say goodbye
I won't let you go don't even try, even try, don't even try

You'll love me now, but I can't help it
If I'm the one who takes you down
You'll love me now, but I can't help it
If I'm the one who knocks you down

I'm sober now, you can see my eyes
I promise, no more fights and no more lies
But we both know that's unrealistic
These moments you'll blink and you'll miss them
I'm in the SL, used to excel in Been Trill
Use to hit gold bar with gold on
Man I ain't seen you in so long
Smoking cigarettes in the winter with your coat on Looking for some bullshit to focus on
I fucked up we were both wrong
Come to the crib we can blow something
Get in bed with no clothes on
Won't let you go, won't let you go
Get in bed with no clothes on
Won't let you go

Watch out, you better watch out
Gonna knock you down, gonna knock you down
Watch out, you better watch out
Gonna knock you down, gonna knock you down
Watch out, you better watch out
Gonna knock you down, gonna knock you down
Watch out, you better watch out
Gonna knock you down, gonna knock you down
Watch out, you better watch out
Gonna knock you down, gonna knock you down
