

Right Here

Devon Baldwin

You lie awake at night, I know you're scared
That one day you will wake without me there
Hold your fire, we'll be alright
Because you're the only one I always knew
Because I'm the only one, you feel it too

I won't ever waste your time
You're the one that I will run to
Nothing that I had to hide
You know me and I know you
You don't even have to try
But even when you think I'm gone, think I'm gone
You're really not alone

I'm right here, I'm right here, tonight
I'm right here, I'm right here, tonight

We don't have to try, we walk the line
Still you think that we might fade in time
Don't give up, don't jump the gun
Because you're the only one, it's nothing new Because I know all the things you want me to

I won't ever waste your time
You're the one that I will run to
Nothing that I had to hide
You know me and I know you
You don't even have to try
But even when you think I'm gone, think I'm gone
You're really not alone

I'm right here, I'm right here, tonight

Keep me in this moment
I can take the weight
But don't let me ever falter
Don't make me into my mistakes

I won't ever waste your time
You're the one that I will run to
Nothing that I had to hide
You know me and I know you
You don't even have to try
But even when you think I'm gone, think I'm gone
You're really not alone

I'm right here, I'm right here, tonight
