

Dickhead

Devon Cole

7: 34 sitting pretty at the door
When you tell me you got work to do
I knew that this was dumb and I probably should have run
When I saw your 3 in 1 shampoo

I do this every time
I guess I forget to think when I drink, start to fantasize
That you'll be mine
And I don't know why
I don't know why

I'm addicted, should listen to my friends
To a dickhead, again again again
I'm addicted, this shit just never ends
To a dickhead, again again again

Show me your guitar, started strumming in the dark and you said I was your wonder wall
We're never gonna last but I keep on coming back
Such a sucker for your booty call

I do this every time
I guess I forget to think when I drink, start to fantasize
That you'll be mine
And I don't know why
I don't know why

I'm addicted, should listen to my friends
To a dickhead, again again again
I'm addicted, this shit just never ends
To a dickhead, again again again again ah

You don't own your shit
And you diss your mom
You give me advice, how to write my songs

You don't leave a tip
Always need a ride
You just can't commit
And I don't know why

You don't own your shit
And you diss your mom
You give me advice, how to write my songs

You don't leave a tip
Always need a ride
You just can't commit
And I don't know why

Turn it up

I'm addicted, should listen to my friends
To a dickhead, again again again
I'm addicted, this shit just never ends
To a dickhead, again again again again ah
I'm addicted, so addicted
