

Kissing Corner Booth

Devon Cole

Right place, right time, wrong intentions
You sip your coffee at our go-to spot
We small talk, chit chat, is there tension?
But I can't focus cause you look so hot

My god
I don't think we're built for this
Cause you're staring at my lips
This friendship is counterfeit
Don't act like you're innocent

We can't go back to the old me and you
Play platonic after what we've been through
So impractical, keeping it casual
We know how this ends
So we can't be friends
We can't be friends

My family's great, thanks for asking
So surface level, can we skip this part?
My best sundress, no reaction
Hope you don't see it, but you're breaking my heart

My god
You know we're not built for this
And you're getting hard to resist
This friendship is counterfeit
Can never be innocent

We can't go back to the old me and you
Play platonic after what we've been through
So impractical, keeping it casual
We know how this ends
So we can't be friends
We can't be friends

We can't be friends
We can't be friends

We went from kissing corner booth
To strangers at this table for two
Won't someone tell me what to do?

We went from kissing corner booth
To strangers at this table for two
Won't someone tell me what to do?

Cause we can't go back
We can't go back to the old me and you
Play platonic after what we've been through
So impractical, keeping it casual
We know how this ends
So we can't be friends
We can't be friends

We can't be friends
We can't be friends
