

Give It Up

Devour The Day

Waking up to hate your own reflection
Been so long, it feels like no way out
Fill the space, addicted to addiction
Break away, lay your burden down

Give it up, yeah
Give it up
It's gonna hold you back
As long as you hold on

Give it up, yeah
Give it up
It's gonna hold you back
As long as you hold on

Late at night I lie awake for answers
Praying for anyone to hear
Somehow, somehow, I could change forever
Somehow, help me let go of the fear

Give it up, yeah
Give it up
It's gonna hold you back
As long as you hold on

Give it up, yeah
Give it up
It's gonna hold you back
As long as you hold on

Don't hold on, don't hold on
Don't hold on, don't hold on

Give it up, yeah

Give it up, yeah
(Break away, lay your burden down)
Give it up
It's gonna hold you back
As long as you hold on

Give it up, yeah
(Break away, lay your burden down)
Give it up
It's gonna hold you back
As long as you hold on

Give it up, yeah
(Break away, lay your burden down)
Give it up
It's gonna hold you back
As long as you hold on

Yeah
Yeah, give it up
Yeah
Give it up
