

Loudmouth

Devour The Day

Yeah, you got a mouth like a shotgun
Loud like a crowd when your on one
Cigarette lips so cocaine quick
They can spit hot nails in your coffin
You're a joke and everybody's laughing
You spout without any action
Blow your smoke but you're bound for the choke
And I hope that I'm there when it happens

Always something to say
Loudmouth
Always something to say
Loudmouth

Yeah you gotta a plan like a death wish
Like a train wreck date with a catfish
Addict insane, so vain every day
With your Facebook hate for the masses
You spread like a vile infection
Like a bully in a comment section
Ego thick like stench on a pig
And you reek of your self-obsession

Always something to say
Loudmouth
Always something to say
Loudmouth

Scream from the top of your tower
So frail with a veil of a power
So fake and afraid
Every choice that you make
Is proof of the fact
The fact you're a coward

Always something to say
Loudmouth
Always something to say
Loudmouth
