

Unborn Child

Devour

Hey beautiful
It's just something about your smile
Yeah I cherish every moment when I'm with you
You girl
Cause idk how long I'll be around
Yeah
And I know I don't have kids of my own
Oh no
But this a letter to my unborn child
Yeah
Until I finally meet you

Want you to know who you are
Want you to know before you're born that you're a star
Wanna know why I go so hard
So my babies live it large
Always stay 10 toes down & don't fold
Always put your money over bitches fuck a hoe
Always put your money over dummies cause they lame
If I ever have a girl that'll be the day I go insane
When your mind's trippin straighten up you gotta get it right
You better stick up for your brother and your sister if they're wrong or right!
I got my mind on my business
I'm just tryna get mine to the millions
I ain't tryna waste no time on these bitches
If I see it & I like it boy I get it
Get one life time to live it
Whewww!

Hey young world
Now let me tell you about my life
If there's any advice I have for you
It'll be
Don't fall victim to your very own pride
Because your pride will really eat you!

Go hard for my squad
Go hard for my dawgs
For the ones I call
Yeah my go to's
Why you acting like you know me I don't know you
You see these people they were with me way before you
Long days
Long nights till the squad paid
Yeah you know I'm going hard until we all paid
I'll roll the dice I'll risk it all until we all paid
PAID
Money trees underneath
Is the perfect place for all shade
SHADE
I got my mind on my hustle
I'm just tryna get mine out the struggle
This for everybody that I told I was gon' bubble
To my people & my unborn child fuck the streets
The don't love you!

Hey beautiful
It's just something about your smile
Yeah I cherish every moment when I'm with you
You girl
Cause idk how long I'll be around
