

Better

Devvon Terrell

I got better dreams
Better teams, better settings, better scenes
Better sex, better money, better weed
Better vibes, better cars, everything, everything
Better decisions, better women, better friends, better visions
Ain't fucking with none of you bitches
I mean that for men and women too, yeah

You will not kill my vibe, no
You cannot tear me down
Oh, we gon' ride and do this right
Drink in my hand and the smoke feel right, yeah
You will not kill my vibe, no
You cannot tear me down, oh we gon' ride
And we do this right
Drink in my hand and the smoke feel right, woo

I got better vibes
Better highs, better lows, better ties
Better moves, better shoes, better views
Better food, better city, better tunes
You know how we do
I got better sights
Better fights, better scars, better nights, yeah
Just know that we're nothing alike
I mean that for men and women too
I'm just saying like we're nothing alike
I'm just, no offense to you

You will not kill my vibe, no
You cannot tear me down, oh we gon' ride
And we do this right
Drink in my hand and the smoke feel right, yeah
You will not kill my vibe, no
You cannot tear me down, oh we gon' ride
And we do this right
Drink in my hand and the smoke feel right, woo

My days better, they say I look way younger, I age better
Going against my tide, my wave
Come from a better print, aromatherapeutic, I'm better sent Better bitch, angelic, she heaven sent
Tell you no lie, look in my eyes, it's better to be sincere
Bet your bottom dollar I'm better with every year
Ain't elect these dead presidents, they was already here
I got better after putting in the blood, the sweat and tears, yeah
My vibe is immortal, slide in the order, of whoever get the best
Outta life, well I'm important
The suit ill, pick up a suit just to enjoy it
Had a boss spending what I recoup from unemployment, uh
Shit is lit, it's getting bigger and better
You say you different but I'm different and better
I be that nigga forever
Divine soul with specific endeavors
To bring nine more figures while the business get better
Get with me

You will not kill my vibe, no
You cannot tear me down, oh we gon' ride
And we do this right
Drink in my hand and the smoke feel right, yeah
You will not kill my vibe, no
You cannot tear me down, oh we gon' ride
And we do this right
Drink in my hand and the smoke feel right, woo
