

Call My Ex

Devvon Terrell

You told me that you got a problem
Funny cause I got me one to
I'm hearing rumors that
You doing you
I find it funny
I told you the other side wasn't greener
Lately you been changing your demeanor
He better be the dopest motherfucker alive
Better tell me he could fight cause Imma see him outside
Or maybe I should call the chick
That you thought I was fuck with
She was kind of tough and you know she'll pull up

Don't make me pull the trigger
Cause I been itching for that chance to squeeze
How we gonna fix us
When we both fuck round for free
You know that I'm emotionally damaged
I'm so petty baby
So why would you
Leave out the crib and ever play me
Are you crazy
I don't think there's no way to save me

I should call my ex
Cause I know that she missing me
Call my ex
And tell her everything you did to me
Don't know who you playing with
Oh this is not a test
Don't ever leave me on read
Call my ex
And tell her everything you did to me
We gon see

I never want to have a problem
I just feel like
Testing my gangsta
Thinking that I don't know how to step out
Or notice when somebody throwing vibes
So many days I could've made you cry
But now I'm hearing rumors on your name
A couple niggas on your good side
Type of time you on when you be outside
Running these streets
Instead of being home with me
Fuck all that love
I just needed your loyalty

Now I gotta pull the trigger
Cause I been itching for that chance to squeeze
How we gonna fix us
When we both fuck round for free
You know that I'm emotionally damaged
I'm so petty baby
So why would you
Leave out the crib and ever play me

Are you crazy
I don't think there's no way to save me

I should call my ex
Cause I know that she missing me
Call my ex
And tell her everything you did to me
Don't know who you playing with
Oh this is not a test
Don't ever leave me on read
Call my ex
And tell her everything you did to me

(Everytime you tell me that you leaving
I say I should call my ex
Got me feeling good everytime we on the phone
I should call my ex
Got me on my toes
Cause you got so many hoes
I should call my ex
When I'm all alone
Its just me and my phone
I should call my ex)
