You believe what they say about your boy don't you
That I just wanna fuck and I don't wanna know you
Cant you tell they just trynna get rid of competition
But fuck them niggas
Fuck them rumors
They can never win if we just ignore em
They mad that a young nigga scoring on your court
I'm an all star nigga you a ball boy
I don't mean to sound facetious
But they need Jesus
All up in our business
Oh you know they need it
If you listen to em it'll give em power
We should never respond to the clout chasing
They hating you
They don't wanna run the whole race
Baby it's a marathon just pick your pace

We both know the truth
Don't let em get to you
Don't listen to the noise
That's what they enjoy
All these people talking really make me sick
Half of them don't even got a profile pic
They fake
They would never say it to our face
Ain't nobody out there more disguised than cancel culture

Fake niggas gone talk bout me crazy
They hate cause they want my baby
But you won't listen to em yea
But you won't listen to em
But you won't listen to em

Funny what they notice
No matter how low low is it's not enough
And the lies are just more entertaining but who wants the truth
Not them but I hope that ya know better
You know my motto
I hope that you follow like
Fuck these niggas
Fuck these rumors
Know they all in our business
But they don't know I still handle the business
When I'm scoring on your court
I'm an all start nigga you a ball boy
Let em sit up in the bleachers
While we at the floor seats popping
Why we giving clout to the people at the bottom
They could want me dead but I'm only worried bout you
Don't let it go to your head baby refuse let it in
See for yourself baby I know my sins yea

We both know the truth
Don't let em get to you
Don't listen to the noise
That's what they enjoy

All these people talking really make me sick
Half of them don't even got a profile pic
They fake
They don't wanna say it to our face
Ain't nobody out there more disguised than cancel culture

Fake niggas gone talk bout me crazy

But you won't listen to em yea
But you won't listen to em
But you won't listen to em
