Chasing Ceilings

Devvon Terrell

I wanna have more sex, less stress, yeah
Spend less, count blessings, yeah
Slow down my moods
Try to be chill, be cool, eh
Hit another level up
Work too hard to feel it
Losing myself, I feel it
Forgot what I do this for

'Cause I don't wanna go out chasing these ceilings
Get so high but you never make a building
I'm losing myself, I'm feeling
Chasing ceilings
I don't wanna go out chasing these ceilings
Get so high but you never make a building
I'm losing myself, I'm feeling
Chasing ceilings

Caught up in my future and caught up in my past
Should be leaving right now but it don't last
I been way too caught up in a million conversations
Realizing that I'm a little too impatient
I remember when this was a basement, yeah
Surrounded by opinions like change this, yeah
Seeking validation from these fake [?] yeah
I never realized that I made it

'Cause I don't wanna go out chasing these ceilings
Get so high but you never make a building
I'm losing myself, I'm feeling
Chasing ceilings
I don't wanna go out chasing these ceilings
Get so high but you never make a building
I'm losing myself, I'm feeling
Chasing ceilings

I wanna have more sex, less stress, yeah
Spend less, count blessings, yeah
Slow down my moods
Try to be chill, be cool, eh
I wanna have more sex, less stress, yeah
Spend less, count blessings, yeah
Slow down my moods
Try to be chill, be cool, eh
