Good morning
What side of the bed you woke up on today?
Yeah, you seem brighter than you up here yesterday
I know at work they stress you, but you gettin' paid
No matter what they say, you gettin' that green
You don't let no one get in between us
Feelin' blue, girl go, put on that black dress
You're shinin', golden, I call you my empress

You know I want to get close to you
Let's get in the mood
I want to know who I'm talking to
Show me any first side of you

I'm lost in your colors
There's so many shades of you
No, there's no other
Can't nobody take the place of you
Don't make me suffer, yeah
Now, I don't want to play
Feelin' all your colors, your colors, yeah

Good morning
Today I don't know what's gon' be your temperature
You got different sides to your interior
Unpredictable is what I am with ya
But I feel secure
So Imma green
'Cause I won't let nobody come between us
And when you're blue, I'll go put on that red dress
Ooh, I'm shining golden baby, I'm your empress

You know I want to get close to you
Let's get in the mood
I want to know who I'm talking to
Show me any first side of you

I'm lost in your colors (lost in your colors)
There's so many shades of you
No, there's no other (there's no other bae)
Can't nobody take the place of you
Don't make me suffer, yeah
Now, I don't want to play
Feelin' all your colors, your colors, yeah
I'm lost in your colors
There's so many shades of you
No, there's no other
Can't nobody take the place of you
Don't make me suffer, yeah
Now, I don't want to play
Feelin' all your colors, your colors, yeah
