

Come Home

Devvon Terrell

So many questions
Like, "Will you come back?" "Will we pick up
Where we both left off?"
'Cause I miss you, know you miss me too
I've gotten better, oh
At expressin' myself like you asked me to
I got my mama still asking for you

'Cause you were the one, mm
That made me feel understood, yeah
I didn't see what you was tryna do
I shoulda shut my mouth and followed you
Held your hand
And now I'm askin' you, baby, can we fall?
Will you fall for me again? Yeah-yeah
Help me pick up where we finished
Don't tell me that we're finished
Come home
Oh, baby, come home

I know you been tested
Like, "Will he come back?" "When's the last time
That he just stayed home?"
I was sittin' there just missin' clues
I didn't know no better
And right now, I don't even have an excuse
I'm sorry for the shit that I did to you, baby

'Cause you were the one, mm
That made me feel understood-stood-stood, yeah
I didn't see what you was tryna do
I shoulda shut my mouth and followed you
And held your hand
And now I'm askin' you, baby, can we fall? Oh
Can we fall in love again? Oh
Can we pick up where we finished?
Don't tell me that we're finished
Come home
Oh, baby, come home, 'cause I been all alone

Boys don't cry
Boys don't cry
Boys don't cry
Boys don't cry, cry, cry
Cry, cry, cry
Love you, pop
