Let me hear you roar (yea yea yea)
All that it tells me you want it more
I'm the King of the Jungle baby
Forget all the rules show you what I could do

Tell me what you want from me
Age don't bother me
You know a little more than me but I can keep up
I had good teachers
You want someone to hold a conversation
401k's in the future

Soon as you walked through the door did you notice that this is my house
You telling me that I'm too young but

You ain't even know I had that
Usher you into the room and you throwback
