

Fire And Rain

Devvon Terrell

I just wanna have a conversation
How we gettin' to this situation
How you tell me that I'm doing wrong
And than I put it in your hands, you misplace it
Always thought that when a nigga change
If you runnin' out of shit to say, than say it to me
Going from ma' girl, to friend, to enemy
I'm feelin' like you tryna' put an end to me

And I got blood on my hands
I feel we're getting closer to the end
When does it end
You know that we can never be friends, ahh yeah!
Who started the fire, which one of us is gonna burn here
And I feel the storm, if it rains, let it storm
Cause everything is really starting to hurt ya

The fire that is in your eyes
It puts the fear of god in me
And I know that you feel the same
We have no control
Of the fire and rain! (of the fire and rain)
Of the fire and rain! (of the fire and rain)
Of the fire and rain! (of the fire and rain)
Of the fire and rain! (the rain)

Been gessin' and gessin' and gessin' for years
Finally feel like I'm facing my fears
Enemies acces, but no one compares
Gave you the shirt of my back
Now I feel like I'm sitting here naked and bear, Huh!
People get cold in the real world
Shit can get hot when you feel the stress
Its crazy how them pictures rise
You go from hard to hurt, to worse, to hurt to death
I don't know why we invest, love is a feeling that all of us get
You let a person in, you give them all the keys
You pray to god that they will never ever leave
Than you come home and you open your door
You realizing that someone has opened your door
Everything gone, keys on the floor
Callin' and callin' but they press ignore
This is the life that I chose
I'm just hopin' that you know
It can go from dark tonight, to hot and cold
To red and white roses everywhere you go

The fire that is in your eyes
It puts the fear of god in me
And I know that you feel the same
We have no control
Of the fire and rain! (of the fire and rain)
Of the fire and rain! (of the fire and rain)
Of the fire and rain! (of the fire and rain)
Of the fire and rain! (the rain)

Yeah

Feel like I'm dying here, time to time again
I found myself in situations where I'm just a lying shit
Sweeping under rocks, and than I lift it up
And than I got a whole pile of shit
Prograstinating on major things
And I'm feeling like I did it to ya
But who is to blame, when you both are the same
And now I feel like I'm on fire
Hurry up for rain to kill all of my desires
We have no control

The fire that is in your eyes
It puts the fear of god in me
And I know that you feel the same
We have no control
Of the fire and rain! (of the fire and rain)
Of the fire and rain! (of the fire and rain)
Of the fire and rain! (of the fire and rain)
Of the fire and rain! (the rain)
