

First To Say It

Devvon Terrell

I got you number and I'm glad I saved it
Baby, subconsciously I'm going crazy
Cause I been thinking 'bout you so much lately
I want you to be mine, I'm talking many mine

Cause I been lying to all of my friends
Saying I'm gon' to be
When I really got you inbetween my sheets
Laying that down, girl, you know me
How ya flight, girl, no Mali
Little bit of love, that's all we need
Got so many things you would be in to
Gimme your good, gimme your bad
Gimme that inbetween, gimme a match
Gimme that owl, gimme that perfect stone
I catched that flight from New York

You know how it feels, they telling me link up
Feeling something, I'm feeling something
And everytime that phone rings we press ignore
We're in love, in love, I'll be the first to say it
We're in love, in love, I'll be the first to say it

Don't let your friends tell you it's just the phase, yeah
Oh girl, it's written all over your face, yeah
Won't say they hating, but girl let's just face it
They see you happy and they wanna taste it

Cause I been lying to all of my friends
Saying I'm gon' to be
When I really got you inbetween my sheets
Laying that down, girl, you know me
How ya flight, girl, no Mali
Little bit of love, that's all we need
Got so many things you would be in to
Gimme your good, gimme your bad
Gimme that inbetween, gimme a match
Gimme that owl, gimme that perfect stone
I catched that flight from New York

You know how it feels, they telling me link up
Feeling something, I'm feeling something
And everytime that phone rings we press ignore
We're in love, in love, I'll be the first to say it
We're in love, in love, I'll be the first to say it
