

Illegal Alien

Devvon Terrell

Just give me some time to get it right
Know that I'm still trynna learn you
And I don't really know what you're use to Ya got a good one right in front of you
I don't even know if I can hold you
I don't wanna set you off or get confused
You got a short fuse and I know that Always wanna wear the past on your back
I just wanna take a lil off of you
Give me a chance to just prove it to ya
I know I know you've been through the bullshit
Constantly falling for the wrong ones

But shawty you got get it right this time
You gon get it all and you deserve it
I'm invested I know that you worth it
I'll take the beatings the punches the outburst the random attitudes
When you'll compare me to being like other dudes
I know it comes from a place of pain

Tell me where is the line that I'm suppose to stay in
When I'm in your space
You tell me go away and
What does it take for me to just stay
Baby let your guard down
Let your guard down yea

We can take time to talk about it
Just let me know where we'll wind up
I know it's all about the timing with ya
So I'mma be patient
But that don't mean I won't be at your borders
Trynna find my way across to ya
I can see a better life
And it starts with you

But shawty you got get it right this time
You gon get it all and you deserve it
I'm invested I know that you worth it
I'll take the beatings the punches the outburst the random attitudes
When you'll compare me to being like other dudes
I know it comes from a place of pain

Tell me where is the line that I'm suppose to stay in
When I'm in your space
You tell me go away and
What does it take for me to just stay
Baby let your guard down
Let your guard down yea
